

1. Seven hierarchical validity gates, applied in fixed order

2. Component tests, evaluated only if every gate passes

3. Conjunction-level aggregation (all four components required)

Survival confirms neither constitution nor identity; the conjunction is observational and does not establish causal return.